

Proposed Trip from Brisbane to Tamworth and return 21st April 2010

After spending time rebuilding my GPW over the last 15 months I thought I would take a camping trip somewhere. After speaking to Neil from Marathon Spares Tamworth and telling him of a Jeep run involving the NSW Jeep Club I decided to tag along. After all Tamworth is not a bad place to visit.

My thought then was to invite any other Jeep owner to come along. The benefits to this are if any one has a problem we can help each other out, get to meet new friends etc.

So below is my planned trip if you wish to come along you are most welcome.. Accommodation is up to individual but camping and swag recommended. Caravan Park stops at times. I only plan to drive short distances. Stopping along the way, Morning and afternoon tea a must.

Day 1.

All meet at the Club house 0900 Wednesday 21st April 2010.

Head for Rathdowney via Beaudesert then up the Lions Road, Kyogle then Casino.

Day 2.

Casino head west to Mallanganee turn left then head for Baryulgil spend the night at Hanging Rock Station. There maybe a small charge for camping.

Day 3.

Jackadgery through Gibraltar Range National Park Glen Innes., spend the night at Ben Lomond, pending on the numbers, at a friends farm.

Day 4.

Ben Lomond very early start, drive to Tamworth arrive Saturday. Neil tells me there will be plenty to do over the weekend. Anzac Day, BBQs.

The homeward trip we can talk about and work out the best route back to Brisbane.

I have put this trip onto paper if you wish to come and you have WW2 jeep you are welcome but please note I take no responsibility for your safety or your equipment.
